We should not be any more extravagant in our speech than we are in our dress.

"Has every man got his price?" asks the Atlantic Journal. Not yet (ndividually speaking).

While Taft and Bacon are in Havana they will pleace not accept any graft in the way of genuine Havana cigars.

Every man is liable to slip a cog some time or other. What we stand for to-day we want to kick ourselves for to-morrow.

If Cuba refuses to be happy among herself she has our permission to hold a hand-primary on "annexation" or "no annexation."

Col. Bryan keeps rigat on explaining his views about government ownership of railroads just as if his first apology was not accepted.

Somehow or other Bryan always did have a kind of Presidential face. How Teddy got in on that one of his is one of the unsolved mysteries.

President Palma says the matter of bringing about peace in his republic has been left to the political parties. Generally the political parties are responsible for bringing on the row.

Judge Alton B. Parker, the Democracy's candidate for President against Roosevelt, says he is "out of politics." We are sorry for it but he never was far enough in 'em to make any scrambling noise in getting out.

For stealing a nickel and two dozen eggs a man has been sent to the Navada penitentiary for two years. If the eggs are the same price out there as they are here, the man was guilty of grand larceny.

As there is some span of time between the close of the fishing season and the beginning of the duck season, it would be interesting if Uncle Grover would break the silence to tell us what he thinks about it.

President Roosevelt will soon leave for the Panama canal zone. During his absence the clerks in Washington will go right on running the government just the same as they have done for the past four years.

In New York a few days ago a police justice discharged a woman who had licked her husband for insisting on doing his wife's shopping. The man who would hanker after shopping for a woman and run the risk of going back down town to exchange the goods for something else, deserved a licking.

NEWS BY TELEPHONE

Star Closes Contract With Southern Bell Company for Special Wire Service.

NEW AND IMPROVED SYSTEM

Apparatus Will Be Installed Soon By Which Paper Will Be in Instant Communication at All Times With Outside World.

The Star on yesterday closed a contract with Mr. L. C. Jennings, representing the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, by which the paper will in future be in much better position than ever before to collect such of its news of a special nature as is not covered by the great Associated Press dispatches over the long distance wires of that company. The contract calls for the installation in the paper's own office of such apparatus as will put its newsgatherers in almost instant communication with the entire long distance service which the Southern Bell Company maintains in every city, village and hamlet in every State east of the Mississippi river. Not only will news of a special nature be available over this line quicker than ordinarily, but it will be available at every hour of the night when other means of communication with the outside world are cut off.

This new service for newspapers was perfected by Mr. Chauncey Smith, superintendent of the long distance telephone and telegraph lines of the Bell Company. For years Mr. Smith realized that modern journalism demanded the most perfect wire service science and ingenuity of man could conceive, and, accordingly, he has spent much of his time in perfecting the various suggestions telephonic experts have made along the line of fashioning special apparatus for newspaper work. Some six months ago the Bell Company realized that they had solved the problem and their perfected equipment was offered to the newspapers. So successful has this newspaper service been that many of the large papers of the South use the talking circuits in gathering their special out-of-town news through the several States which comprise that territory.

Special heavy metallic circuits running directly from the toll board into the newspaper offices there terminate in special terminals, and when the State news editor wants to get a correspondent five or fifteen hundred miles away, all he has to do is to touch a lever when a signal is given to the toll operator in the exchange who records and passes his call. Within an incredibly short space of time the editor is in convesation with his corespondent who reads him his account just as though he were going to file it with a telegraph company. So perfect is this service that by means of head sets the paper will be enabled to get several hundred words in a few minutes, and all this at a greatly reduced cost.

As heretofore said, the service will be inaugurated just so soon as the company receives this special equipment from the Bell Company's headquarters in Atlanta, Ga.

While the Bell Company's newspaper service is comparatively speaking in its infancy, already the leading newspapers from Tampa, Fla., to Richmond, Va., are using its lines for the purpose of gathering news with brilliant results, as is attested by the flattering notices in the press concerning it.

EVE OF ONE PRIMARY AFTERMATH OF ANOTHER

Second Race To-day for Sheriff and Register of Deeds—Late Returns From All Precincts in Wednesday's Contest.

The second primary to-day for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff and Register of Deeds of New Hanover county promises to be quite up to the standard of that one on Wednesday when there was no choice for the two offices named above. The same rules and regulations as in the first primary will obtain to-day and the hours will be practically the same, from sunup to sundown. As was announced yesterday the race is between Messrs. Cowan and Biddle for the shrievalty and between Messrs. Haar and Everett for Register of Deeds. Both sides, of course, are claiming victory and the partisans of each are as busy as bees trying to command the strength of those candidates who dropped out with the first contest. Both Cowan and Biddle are claiming a majority of the James' strength and both Haar and Everett claim that they will be able to secure enough of the Horne votes to carry them to victory. It was stated yesterday that Mr. Horne had been employed as deputy in the office of Mr. Haar, in case he is elected, and that personally he will try to influence as much of his following as possible for that candidate. Whether this be true or not is neither denied nor confirmed by supporters of Mr. Haar, who appears very confident of winning.

The returns will be made to the Democratic Executive Committee at the Court House to-night and it is expected that the result will be known early as the count will not be so difficult. There is great interest in the second contest and it is expected that nearly as large a vote will be cast as was cast in the first primary Wednesday. However, the crowds at work are orderly and well behaved. The saloons closed last midnight and will not open again until 6 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Returns From the Country.

The late returns from Wednesday's primaries which came in yesterday altered the general results very little The Seven Mile Post, in Harnett township, was the only precinct from which no returns at all were received Wednesday night. This precinct gave Cowan, 12; Biddle, 37, and James, 6, for sheriff, running the totals up as follows: Cowan, 933; Biddle 790 and James, 627. For Register of Deeds, Everett received 7, Haar 7, and Horne 33, running the totals to Everett, 748; Haar, 775 and Horne, 700. For the Legislature, Morton received 44 and Culbreth 4, making the totals: Morton, 1,393 and with 8 that Federal Point gave Culbreth, instead of one as first reported, a total for that candidate of 722. For treasurer, Harnett gave Green 39, and Montgomery 8, while Federal Point gave Green 2 and Montgomery 15, the totals in that race being Green, 1,608; Montgomery, 602. For Coroner, Federal Point gave Bell 15 and Branch 2, while Harnett gave Bell 38 and Branch 1, running the total vote to 1,374 for Bell and 486 for Branch. For the State Senate Federal Point gave Bellamy for the Senate 14 and Harnett37, making Bellamy's total vote in the county 1,737. Federal Point gave Col. Jno. D. Taylor, for Clerk of the Superior Court, 17 and Harnett gave him 32, making his total vote in the county, 1,872.

In Harnett township, Seven Mile Post, G. R. Smith received 48 votes for constable. The vote for magistrate in Harnett was Gerrit Walker, 34; J. H. Hanby, 16; B. B. Humphrey, 3.

J. A. Smith was named for Constable in Cape Fear township.

Last of the Official Returns.

The last of the official returns from the city were received by the County Executive Committee at the Court House yesterday morning at 6 o'clock and until the Fourth ward, which came in at that hour, the result for magistrates and executive committee, could not be told. STORM ON THE COAST

Reports Continue to Come in of Fearful Havoc by Wind and Wave.

LIGHTSHIP TOWED IN HERE.

Boats Carried Away and Smashed—Vessels Ashore at Little River, S. C.—Big Damage to Government Jetties on Lower Cape Fear.

With the arrival of every boat from Southport comes additional information as to the terrible havoc wrought by the storm Monday morning off this coast. The United States Buoy Tender Wistaria, Capt. Johnson, from Charleston, S. C., arived up late yesterday afternoon bringing Frying Pan Lightship No. 1, in command of Capt. Nelson, which broke loose from her moorings in the terrible blow and went adrift. The men on board say the storm was one of the worst they ever encountered. The ship was picked up early yesterday morning by the Wistaria off the Cape Fear bar, where she had anchored after using her sail auxiliary in beating up and down the coast since she lost her anchorage. The davits of the lightship were carried away, one of her boats was lost and another was smashed all to pieces. The ship is here for repairs and Capt. Johnson says that he hopes to get her back on her station by Saturday, if possible. The Wistaria was further south than Charleston during the storm else she would have been to the lightship sooner.

It was definitely learned yesterday that the vessels ashore off Little River, S. C., are the barque Ethel, bound from Charleston to Elizabethport, N. J., with cargo of lumber, previously reported from Charleston, and the four-masted schooner Cassie F. Bronson, 952 tons, Capt. Hyer, light, from New York for some southern port. The Ethel lost her captain and steward in the storm and is a complete wreck. Her masts and stern are out and the lumber cargo is washing out also. She will be a total wreck. The Cassie F. Bronson is high and dry on the beach six miles below Little River and persons can walk around her on low tide. She appears in fair condition and may be saved. The Ethel is 13 miles south of Little River. The report that an English steamer was ashore there seems to have been ill founded.

The tug Blanche and steamer Compton have the wreck of the schooner R. D. Bibber off the bar, but were yesterday unable to get in with her. She is turned completely over and it is very difficult to tow her. It appears that the captain and a part of the crew are lost. The mate and three men were taken to Charleston on the Clyde Liner New York Tuesday as previously reported.

The Norwegian barque Gerd, 714 tons, Capt. Skramstad, from Barbados, bound to Wilmington, was also reported off the bar yesterday, but she could not get a tug boat on account of their being engaged in wrecking. She will probably be in to-day. She is consigned to Heide & Company and comes here for cargo of naval stores from Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Capt. Edgar D. Williams arrived up last night from Southport on the tug Marion which had also been out to assist the vessels in distress if possible, South, southeast of the bar he picked up a yawl from the schooner James D. Dewell, of New Haven, 502 tons, Capt. Hammond, from Charleston to New York. There were no tidings of the vessel. Capt. Williams says that it may be possible that it is the wreck of the Dewell that the Blanche has hold of instead of the Bibber as the name of the latter vessel does not show above water. Capt. Williams also reports a three-masted schooner anchored off the bar about 13 miles since Tuesday. She was spoken by the Compton but refused assistance. It is not known whether she will proceed or attempt to come in.

Reports are also to the effect that the storm Monday did great damage to the jetties built by the government and known as "The Rocks." There is one breach in the southern end of the dam about 500 feet in length, two others about 200 feet long, another 150 feet long and several smaller ones. It is estimated that it will cost the government as much as a hundred thousand dollars to replace his work. The situation is being looked after by the Engineers' office in Wilmington.

NEWS FROM RALEIGH

Corporation Commission Refuses Request of Railroads for Southern Classification.

CAMPAIGN APPOINMENTS.

Interesting Ruling By Supreme Court on Transfer of Checks from One Bank to Another for Collection—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—Nearly three months ago the principal railroads in this State filed with the Corporation Commission and requested the adoption of what is known as the Southern classification of freight rates. The reason the railroads gave for the adoption of this classification was that it would make the North Carolina rates uniform with those of other States in their Inter-State business. They also claimed that while there were many changes in rates, the whole schedule had the effect of reducing rather than increasing the rates. The Commission now announces its refusal to adopt the Southern classification.

The Commission was also asked about the same time by the railroads to change the minimum carload in shipments of fertilizers from 20,000 to 30,000 pounds. This request is also refused by the Commission.

State Auditor B. F. Dixon left this morning for Newbern where he will make a political speech tonight. He will speak at Jacksonville, Onslow county, to-morrow and at Southport on the next day, each of the speeches being in connection with the campaign.

The Supreme Court has made a verbal ruling to the effect that where a check is placed with a bank for collection and it is sent by that bank to the bank on which it is drawn rather than to the banks regular correspondent bank in the town in the event of failure from any cause to collect the check the bank with which the check was deposited for collection becomes liable for the amount. The case in which the ruling was made was the Bank of Rocky Mount vs. Floyd. The Bank of Rocky Mount had received the check on deposit and sent it to the Murchison Bank at Wilmington, which in turn sent it to the Mechanics' and Farmers' Bank at Dunn on which it was drawn. This bank failed so that the check was not cashed. The Murchison Bank is now held liable for the amount of the check.

Lost a Wad of Bills.

Mr. A. C. Holton, assistant superintendent of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, in this city, had the misfortune to lose $70 in money in the vicinity of Water and Market streets yesterday evening about 6 o'clock. There were three $20 gold certificates and two $5 bills folded up and were carried by Mr. Holton in the watch pocket of his trousers. He had occasion to get some change out of the pocket a few minutes before and had walked around the north corner only a few steps when he missed the money. He hastily retraced his steps but was unable to find the missing greenback. Elsewhere in today's paper he advertises a liberal reward for the return of the money.

Dr. Bell in a Runaway.

A new horse being tried out yesterday morning by Dr. C. D. Bell became frightened at Third and Market streets and ran away. Dr. Bell was unable to control the animal by the reins and upon reaching Second street took the desperate chance of steering him into a telegraph pole on the corner. Dr. Bell was thrown from the buggy with some violence and narrowly missed being pitched headlong into a post himself, but he was fortunate enough to escape with only a few slight bruises. The horse broke out of the buggy and was captured in the southern part of the city. The buggy was damaged very little.

No Aldermen Meeting.

The special meeting of the Board of Aldermen called for last night to consider the location of houses of alleged ill fame was not held. Six members of the Board asked that the meeting be called off inasmuch as the matters for consideration are being adjusted in a quiet manner and no good could come of a public discussion of the affair.

John Haar held the position of Register of Deeds several years ago. He gave universal satisfaction. Vote for him to-day. **

MR. ROOSEVELT AND MR. BRYAN.

It seems that President Roosevelt and the Hon. Wm. J. Bryan are not such a far cry from each other with regard to government ownership of railroads. The Buffalo Evening Times quotes from an address by President Roosevelt before the Chautauqua association, in which he had a good deal to say about the supervision of the railroads and public utility corporation, in general, and then concluded with this expression of his opinion: "But in the end, and in my judgment at a time not very far off, we shall have to, take further action as regards all corporations doing an interstate business."

The Atlanta Journal, noting what the Buffalo paper says, adds:

"It may very well be that Mr. Bryan may have considered that a government ownership garment was one of those which Mr. Roosevelt stole from him. What 'further action' can be taken after government supervision has failed? What is the difference between Mr. Bryan's 'ultimately' and Mr. Roosevelt's 'in the end?' Mr. Roosevelt in his message to Congress threatened the railroads with government ownership if government regulation failed. Mr. Bryan has expressed the opinion that we shall have to come to government ownership, ultimately. Certainly the difference between the two is not great enough for the hypocritical horror of Republican newspapers. Government ownership is no more a Democratic than it is a Republican doctrine, but Mr. Roosevelt has suggested its possibility as freely as Mr. Bryan. Why not be fair?"

If our memory serves us right, President Roosevelt in urging the passage of the rate bill, declared in still stronger language that if some such measure were not adopted, the sentiment in favor of government ownership would grow.

FIRST WORK FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer on Wednesday sent the following to that paper:

"Miss Daisy Denson, the secretary for the State board of public charities, says that the improvement of jails and county homes is just now more marked than ever before. Harnett is building a new jail and other counties are in many ways improving jails. Montgomery and Rowan are arranging plans for new ones. The standards of jails in the State are not high but the improvements in the past few years are certainly gratifying.

"Miss Denson says that the board of public charities will with all its power and zeal press two matters at the coming session of the Legislature, one being a reform school and the other an enlargement of the hospitals for the insane. She says that members of the board are of the opinion that both these things will be done. Never before has the movement for a reform school been so popular as at present. The press of the State is back of it."

The people of the State are back of it, too, and if the Legislature does not act, there will be just ground for indignation from one end of the State to the other. The Hospital for the Insane, at Raleigh, is so crowded that one day this week an insane white man of respectable family had to be placed in Wake county jail until room could be made for him at the institution. In the various counties such unfortunates have to be kept for months in the common jails until arrangements can be made to get them to the asylums for treatment. No such shameful state of affairs should be tolerated in a State that boasts of its progress and prosperity.

If the Legislature does nothing else, it should provide for the criminal youth and insane of North Carolina.

CONGRESSMAN THOMAS.

The Mount Olive Tribune says of the Democratic representative from our neighboring Congressional District, the Third:

"Hon. Chas. R. Thomas, our able Congressman, fired the opening campaign gun for this district in a speech at Burgaw, Pender county, Wednesday of last week. He will be heard all over the district ere the campaign closes, and we pity his Republican opponent—who is yet to be named—for the 'drubbing' that he will receive at the hands of Mr. Thomas, who will go back to Congress again this year with an even larger majority than he has received in the past, confident of the fact that the people of the Third district appreciate the services he has rendered, and determined to accomplish more and better things during the coming two years. Mr. Thomas is decidedly one of the ablest of all the Southern representatives in Congress today, and one of the few who have made a National reputation in such a short space of time."

Representative Thomas deserves what the Tribune says of him and he is entitled to re-election by the biggest majority he ever received. We watched his course in Congress, and it can be truthfully said that North Carolina never had a more zealous member in Congress. He not only made a good member for the Third but an excellent Representative for North Carolina. It is highly important for the District and the State that he be sent back to Congress.

BRYAN FOR DR. McIVER'S SUCCESSOR.

The Charleston News and Courier quotes from Mr. Bryan's beautiful tribute to the late Dr. Chas. D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, at Greensboro, N. C., and makes this reference to it:

"Dr. Charles D. McIver died while he was on Mr. Bryan's special train, near Durham, last Monday, on his way to Greensboro with the orator. Mr. Bryan spoke at Greensboro in the evening, but, instead of talking politics, he spoke in terms of the highest praise of his dead friend. 'At the age of 14 years a seat in the United States Senate was the height of my ambition,' he said. 'I did not want to go to Congress or to be President; the Senate was the place. I have changed now, I do not care to hold office. I want to do all the good I can. I am striving to leave the world something. I had rather, a thousand times, leave the world what Dr. McIver has left it than to leave John D. Rockefeller's millions.

"Are we to understand that Mr. Bryan positively will not run for President at the next election? If he was entirely sincere in what he said, the North Carolinians would doubtless be willing to put him in Dr. McIver's place. A successor will have to be found for him; why not take Mr. Bryan?"

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The hissing last night of the minstrel made up to represent President Roosevelt was not commendable.

—The same freight rates for the Charleston-Bremen Line as for the New York-Bremen Line. That seems to eb a very fair proposition. With an equality of opportunity we ought to be able to make the new steamship line "go."—Charleston News and Courier.

—Speaker Cannon says that the Maine people are in favor of the prohibition law, but opposed to its enforcement. It was Senator Ingalls who said that prohibition suited everybody in Kansas, the prohibitionists had the law and the boys had the whiskey.—Atlanta Journal.

—The farmers who sold cotton in the Spring for September delivery at ten cents a pound are strutting around big and posing the far-sighted wise men from the east. Everything is lovely now, but a little later they may be grinning on the other side fo their face.—Sumpter (S. C.) Daily Item.

—The reason Mr. Holloway decided to purchase a second auto was probably because some of his friends complained that he had been using a new brand of gasoline in his other machine, but on investigation it was learned that he had accidently run over a skunk out in the vicinity of the famous William Gunton murder.—Oskaloosa (Iowa) Globe.

TWINKLINGS.

—"I used to know Mr. Sneeker, who was with your firm. I understand he is a tried and trusted employe—" "He was trusted, yes, and he'll be tried, too, if we're so fortunate as to catch him.,,—Philadelphia Press.

—"Our local gals air beginnin' to perk up," declared the editor of the Pine Knob Palladium. "How's that?" "One of 'em writ in the other day to inquire if she oughter have a chaperon to go toa hangin'!"—Louisville Courier Journal.

—Young Husband—I told the governor I thought it would be wise if we started housekeeping at once. Young Wife—And did he indorse the opinion? Young Husband—Oh, yes, he indorsed the opinion all right.—Town and Country.

—"This Winter," said the Boston hostess, "our club will devote a great deal of time to the old masters. Have you ever been interested in them?" "No," replied the lady from Terry Hutt, Ind., "not since I first seen 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' Simon Legree completely disgusted me with 'em."—Cleveland Press.

Danderine

GREW THIS HAIR

And we can PROVE IT

Testimonial No. 570.

MRS. ANNIE E. SHEEHAN, Weir City, Kansas.

You must remember that failing hair and dandruff are signs of decay, or a diseased condition of the scalp, and you must not delay treatment. To do so simply means more loss of hair, and a greater impoverished scalp, and finally no hair. The wise thing to do is to correct it in the start. Danderine works wonders in all such cases. It will quickly regenerate the enfeebled tissues, and make your hair grow more beautiful than it ever was. NOW at all druggists, three sizes.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—More building is in progress in Raleigh than for years.

—The number of convicts in the North Carolina penitentiary is now only 625.

—The trolley line in Raleigh is to be extended and a park made at the northern limits of the city.

—The Republican Congressional convention for the second district of North Carolina met in Wilson on Wednesday and nominated James B. Gaskill, of Tarboro, for Congress.

—Sampson Democrat: The tobacco warehouse is having good sales each day, and price are, as as rule, satisfactory to all farmers. Prices the past week ranged from 8 to 20 cents per pound.

—Clarkton Epress: Branden's next Representative in the Legislature is a good Baptist, an enthusiastic church and Sunday school worker, and a strong advocate of the State's present prohibition laws.

—Clarkton Express: There was some drinking in the recent Democratic convention, but we didn't see but one man drunk enough to create a disturbance, and it is said that he was a member of theother arty.

—Sampson Democrat: By far the largest cane we have seen this year or any other one, was a sample brought in the Democrat office last Saturday by Dub Pope, of Honeycutts. It measured 17½ feet in length. He says that he has an acre that will average 16 feet. Raising cane and profiting by it is his motto.

—At Raleigh on Wednesday the Secretary of State chartered the Craven Chemical Company of Newbern, to manufacture commercial fertilizers, the capital stock being $100,000 and the principal stockholders being C. E. Foy, C. B. Bradham, of Newbern, and C. P. Bolles, of Wilmington. Of the stock $26,000 is paid up —Raleigh Correspondence: Judge and Mrs. Nichols, of Louisiana are here, visiting Mrs. James R. Young, their daughter. Judge Nichols has twice been governor of Louisiana and was Chief Justice, but under a new constitution the judge who has been longest on the bench is Chief Justice and so a judge who was appointed by Mr. Nichols when he was Governor is now a Chief Justice. Mr. Nichols being an associate. He is a man of very great ability.

—Raleigh Special, Sept. 19: Democratic State Chairman Simmons, A. D. Watts and others returned to-day from the tour they made with Mr. Bryan through the central and western parts of the State. Chairman Simmons is greatly pleased with the crowds Mr. Bryan drew and also with the enthusiasm and interest which he aroused everywhere he spoke. It is felt that his visit is a very beneficial one to the party.

—At High Point on Wednesday Mr. Jesse Harrison, who conducts a local transfer business, was engaged in moving a carboy of sulphuric acid from a drug store, when the carboy fell from the truck and smashed on the concrete pavement. The acid splashed on Mr Harrison and fearfully burned him about the legs and feet. It was lucky that he was at a drug store where the proper remedy was applied to relieve what might have been a fatal burn.

—Raleigh Correspondent, Sept. 19: Mention was made here to-day of the fact that the religious workers who conducted the gospel tent here would start a campaign in the tenderloin district, using the gospel wagon which used to tour the city last Autumn, carrying both preachers, exhorters and singers. Next week the work begins and Rev. Mr. Massee, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, will be at the head of it, aided by Rev. Mr. Ham, the assistant pastor.

—Raleigh Correspondence: The Raleigh & Pamlico Sound Railway has arranged to haul cotton and tobacco into Raleigh. It tarverses a very fine country. As yet the track is not in condition to permit passenger traffic. The owners of the road are not only very wealthy and progressive men but they are careful and so are the officials. This road will open a new territory to Raleigh and it is certainly extermely important. The leaf tobacco market here is being pushed with vigor, and the citizens and the chamber of commerce are aiding it very materially.

—At a meeting nf the board of trustees of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro Wednesday evening, Prof. J. I. Foust, dean of the college, was placed in charge. Mr. Foust has always been at the head of the college in Dr. McIver's absence. It was decided to hold a public memorial service in the college Thursday, October 11th, at which time a memorial of Dr. McIver's life and public service will be presented. The college opened Thursday for the fall term. J. D. Murphy, of Asheville, a member of the board of directors, addressed the students. The attendance is the largest the college has ever enrolled.

—Greensboro Special, Sept. 19: The funeral of Charles Duncan McIver, late president of the State Normal and Industrial College, who died Monday on the Bryan special train near near Durham, was held form the First Presbyterian church this morning, in the presence of the largest congregation that ever attended a funeral in this city. Before the hour appointed for the service the spacious church and annex were crowded, and as many more, who could not get inside, stood about the entrance and upon the lawn. In the vast number of people who gathered to pay the last marks of respect to their ownsman and friend were many men prominent in educational work and public life.

—Charlotte Observer: Amos Owens is no more. He died at his home at Cherry Mountain Monday night at the ripe old age of 86 years. He had been feble for more than a year and during the last few weeks his death had been expected at almost any moment. Seldom does one meet a more unique character than was Amos Owens. Rather small of stature and slightly weazened, with a keen eye, always wearing a tall silk hat, he was a figure to attract attention. Until the last two or three years he was a familiar figure in Charlotte during the terms of the Federal Court, which he almost always attended, as a defendant or witness or through curiosity. He was good at repartee, and was always glad to talk. Amos had a most remarkable prison record. He could not understand why he should not get his corn crop into marketable form—by turning it into liquid—and consequently he and the revenue officers kept a pretty close watch on each other. He served few less than a dozen sentences for blockading, being sent to Sing Sing one or twice.

—Charlotte Observer, Sept. 20: The Cannon Manufacturing Company of Concord, one of the largest textile manufacturing concerns in the South, yesterday let the contract for the building of two new cotton mills and 200 tenement houses at Cannapolis, the new town being built by the Cannons seven miles north of Concord. The contract was awarded to T. C. Thompson & Brother, of Birmingham, Ala., one of the best known firms of contractors in the country. By the terms of the contract the buildings are to be completed within 12 months and the price will be $350,000. The mills, with the outfits of machinery, will probably cost more than half a million dollars. An Observer reporter was talking with Mr. J. W. Cannon, the head of the Cannon Manufacturing Company, over the long distance phone last night and learned that the two new mills will operate 50,000 spindles and 1,300 looms. Te product will be yarns and sheeting. The mills will be among the best equipped in the South. Work on the buildings will begin as soon as the Southern Railway puts in a spur track so that raw material may be put on the grounds.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily. when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowziness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor of 8th South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism, and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankles and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

RUSSELL SAGE BELIEVED

That it was wise for the average man or woman to follow the advice of experts in financial matters. At one time, in discussing this matter, he said:

"There is a common fallacy, quite as prevalent with men as with women, that while for legal advice we go to lawyers and for medical advice to doctors, and for the construction of a great work we go to engineers, financing is everybody's business. As a matter of fact, it is the most profound and complicated of them all."

White Man From County Arrested for Attempted Criminal Assault.

J. D. Sidbury, 57 years old and a man of a large family, living a short distance from the city in the "Jumping Run" neighborhood, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox and lodged in jail to await preliminary trial Saturday morning at 10 o'clock before Justice John Furlong upon the grave charge of an attempted criminal assault upon the 16-year-old daughter of a neighbor, who was alone at her home Wednesday morning when the offence is alleged to have been committed. The warrant was sworn out by the girl's father, who has employed Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esq., to prosecute the case. Bond has been fixed at $500 but Sidbury had been unable to give it up to last night.

Both families to the unfortunate affair are well-connected and the men are well-to-do. Sidbury denies the charge and says that he will be able to establish his innocence.

Republicans Nominate Norris.

The Republicans of the Third District held their convention at Goldsboro yesterday and nominated Norris, of Newbern to oppose Hon. Charles R. Thomas, for Congress in that district. A resolution was adopted requiring the candidates to challenge Mr. Thomas for a joint debate and if the instructions are carried out by Mr. Norris, the sovereign voters up in that neck of the woods may look out for the fur.

Died.

In this city Thursday September 20th, 1906 Eunice Helena Katherine, infant daughter of George and Katherine H. Haar.

LOCAL DOTS.

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. C. H. McMillan and Mrs. Ann Eliza Potter, both of Wilmington.

—The schooner Fannie Prescott, Capt. Flinn, which arrived Wednesday night from New York, has cargo of coal for the Springer Coal Company.

—Mr. C. P. B. Mahler was yesterday granted a permit to build a two-story, tin-roof, 14-room store and dwelling, to cost $3,500, on Fourth, between Red Cross and Campbell streets.

—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Haar deeply sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter. Eunice Helena Katherine, which occurred yesterday at the family home in this city.

—By deed filed for record yesterday Thos. H. Wright transferred to Thos. R. Orrell, for $100 and other considerations, property on south side of Nun, 139 feet west of Fifth street, 35x66 feet in size, with right of way over adjoining property.

—There was only one case before Mayor Waddell in the police court yesterday. "Son" oderick, charged with disorderly conduct and reckless driving, was fined $5 and costs in each case. There was not a single arrest made on the day of election or the night following.

—The steamer Wilmington will be off the ways to-day or to-morrow and will make her regular trip to Carolina Beach Sunday afternoon, leaving the city at 2:30 P. M. and returning about 7 o'clock. This will afford a fine opportunity for people to see the effect of the storm there.

—Justice Bornemann was as happy as a lark yesterday over the remarkable endorsement given him by his fellow citizens at the primary Wednesday. "What's the news?" a reporter asked the judge in his office yesterday. "Oh, it's one grand sweet song all day," replied the Emperor William of Wilmington.

WORK AT THE BEACH.

Some Delay in Repairs There—Dance To-night Postponed.

Owing to unexpected delays the Consolidated Company was unable to get the board walk laid over the trestle at Wrightsville opening the beach again yesterday but it is announced that everything will be in readiness for the dance to-morrow night, which event was postponed from this evening. Architect H. E. Bonitz sent down a force of carpenters, plumbers and laborers to Lumina yesterday and work was begun at once on the restoration there. The lights were ready to be cut on the beach last night. The stranded car on the hammocks has been put in condition and will be in operation at once. Trackmen are busy on the beach restoring the line so that the car may be operated to Lumina in time for the dance to-morrow night.

COL. ELLIOTT'S SUCCESSOR.

Hon. Alexander Hamilton General Counsel of Atlantic Coast Line.

New York, Sept. 20.—At a meeting of the directors of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company in this city Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, Va., was elected general counsel of the company to succeed the late W. G. Elliott.

A meeting of the Atlantic Coast Line Company was also held but no successor to Mr. Elliott who was president of the company, was chosen. President Elliott's successor will probably be chosen at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company on October 10.

Stalls and Tables Rented.

The annual renting of the stalls and tables in the various market houses of the city was conducted yesterday as advertised by Chairman W. W. King, of the Market Committee of the Board of Aldermen. The stalls went mainly to present tenants at the old figures, but the fish tables brought a very high premium.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair When Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suit of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SEA'S VICTIMS ARE NUMEROUS

Additional Reports of Ships Foundered and Wrecked by Recent Storm

BRITISH BARK GOES DOWN

Remorseless Hatteras Scene of Several Disasters—Schooner Foundered Off Charleston—One of the Crew Picked Up

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—The German steamer Carl Menzel, which brought in from sea today the four masted lumber laden schooner City of George town, claims salvage of more than $20.000. The owners of the vessel have been communicated with and it is hoped that a settlement may be reached without recourse to the courts.

The weather bureau reports that at 8 o'clock tonight an unknown tug towing a four masted schooner partly dismantled passed in the capes. It was too dark when the vessels passed in for the observer to distinguish the names of either. It is believed, however, that the schooner is the Francis C. Tunnell reported today as being in distress near Wash Woods.

British Bark Wrecked Off Hatteras.

New York, Sept. 20.—News of the loss at sea of the British bark Austria was brought into port today by the Atlas Line steamer Altai from West Indian ports. The Altai brought to New York Captain Robinson, Mrs. Robinson and the crew of sixteen men of the Austria having taken them off their waterlogged bark while passing Cape Hatteras. The Austria sailed from Gulfport, Miss., for Rio de Janeiro with a cargo of lumber.

Three More Disasters.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 20.—The four masted schooner Benjamin F. Pool, Captain Rodgers, of Providence, R. I., caught in the late coast storm, was towed here today by the tug M. E. Luckenbach with eighteen feet of water in her hold. The Pool sailed from Brunswick, Ga., September 10, with cargo and deck load of lumber for New York. Besides losing a portion of her canvas and a part of her deck load, she was badly strained. Captain Rodgers reports having passed at nightfall yesterday off Bodies' Island, a schooner coming up the coast with most of her sails gone and which he took to be the four masted schooner Francis C. Tunnell, of Philadelphia.

The barkentine Good News of Baltimore, bound from Fernandina to Io de Janeiro with rosin, was towed into Hampton Roads today with part of her sails carried away, leaking and otherwise in distress. She met the late Southern gale and was blown northward far out of her course. The Good News cargo appears to have shifted and her house was stove in forward during the gale. She was towed in by a Weaver tug.

A four masted schooner, apparently in a waterlogged condition, is today off the Wash Woods Life Saving station on this coast. The vessel's crew is apparently aboard and she is flying a signal of some kind that cannot yet be understood from shore.

$5,000 For Saving Millionaire.

Norfolk, Va., September 20.—Five thousand dollars was the amount of salvage paid Captain Daniel, of the British steamer Lovaine for rescuing the saling yacht Palatine on board of which were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ledlir and son, John S. Ledlir, of St. Louis, Mo. The yacht lost her rudder and sails during the terrific storm of last Sunday and Monday and when sighted by the Lovaine was dangerously near the treacherous shoals of False Cape. The yacht is now at the Colonna marine railway for repairs, and its owner, Mr. Ledlir, wife and son son are registered at the Monticello Hotel. Five men, composing the crew of the yacht, are quartered on board the craft.

Marvelous Rescue at Sea.

Washington, Sept. 20.—The capsizing of the American schooner Twilight and the loss of six of her crew in the recent storm off the Carolina coast, is announced in the following message, dated today and received at the Navy Department by wireless via. St Augustine from the cruiser Minneapolis on her way to Cuba:

"The Minneapolis fifty miles east of Charleston picked up at midnight a man at sea floting on a plank. Two men heard his voice alongside at 11 oclock. Stopped the ship and turned on the searchlight and lowered a lifeboat. The man's name was James Olsen and he belonged to the schooner Twilight which capsized on the morning of September 17. There were seven of the crew. We remained in the vicinity using the searchlights until daylight but saw no sign of the wreck or any survivors.

"W. Fiske (Commander.

The Twilight, Captain Feddenson, was of 357 tonnage and her home port was Wilmington, Delaware. She sailed from Charleston September 11 for Philadelphia. She was built at East Haven, Conn., in 1874.

DARING BANK ROBBERY.

Eight Masked Men Hold Michigan Town at Bay.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Grand Rapids, Mich., September 20.—Eight masked and heavily armed burglars had the people of White Cloud, a village forty-five miles north of here, at bay early to-day while they rifled the Newayago county bank and attempted also to rob the bank of R. Gannon & Son. The eight men rode into the town of White Cloud between 12 and 1 o'clock, surrounded the buildings containing the two banks and posted guard outside while other members of the gang worked inside.

The interoir of Newayago county bank was completely wrecked by two explosions. The burglars got between $2.000 and $4,000 in cash. Dynamite was then used to wreck the interior of the Gannon Bank, but while the cracksmen were at work here, the townspeople wakened by the explosions, gathered until there were so many of them present that the guards evidently decided it was not prudent to wait longer. They called out the men working in the bank before they could get the safe open and covering the citizens with guns, rode out of town on horse back.

Alexander, formerly of the firm of Alexander and Alexander, who was arrested in Pittsburg, arrived here under guard of Lieutenant William Collins, at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Leaving the train at a point about two miles from the station, the officer and his prisoner drove to the office of Sheriff Clark where Alexander was taken in by the back door, and arraigned on a charge of swindling and cheating. His counsel were waiting him and immediately bond was fixed in the sum of $5,000 and he was released. Alexander was driven to his residence in the fashionable section of the city and declined all callers.

THREE LEVIATHANS LAUNCHED

One Longest Cruiser in World—Liner of 40,000 Tons.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

London, September 20.—Three Leviathans were launched from various shipyards in Great Britain to-day. They are the H. M. S Shannon, the longest armored cruiser in the world, the Mauretania, the new Cunarder, a sister ship and indentical to the turbine steamer Luistania and the White Star liner Adriatic, which next to the two huge Cunarders, is the largest ship afloat.

The Adriatic was the first of the trio to take the water. She is the largest vessel ever built at Belfast. Her displacement is 40,000 tons. She is 710 feet feet long,75 feet six inches beam, and 59 feet six inches deep. Her gross tonnage is nearly 25,000. The general lines of this vessel are similar to the Baltic, and she has all the improvements seen in the Amerika of the Hamburg-American line. The Adriatic has nine decks and seven corga holds and has been constructed more for regard of the comfort of trans-Atlantic passengers than for speed. The Adriatic cost $3,750.000.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." HARRY THAW MURDER CASE.

The Writ Restraining Prosecution From Examining Witnesses.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Sept. 20.—The motion by counsel for Harry K. Thaw, to make permanent a temporary writ restraining the attorney general and grand jury from examining witnesses in Thaw's case was referred to Recorder Goff in a decision handed down by Justice McLean in the Supreme Court today.

"Further action," says the decision, "will be deferred to afford an opportunity for a motion in the same beshalf before the recorder."

Thaw was visited today by Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburg detective, who has been retained in connection with the defense of the prisoner. It was reported that O'Mara had been sent for to confer with Thaw regarding alleged differences between Thaw and Clifford W. Hartridge, his chief counsel, relative to the line of defense to be adopted at the Thaw's trial.

Mr. Hartridge also had a conference with Thaw. Later the attorney was asked if there had been a disagreement between Thaw and himself.

"Not so far as I know," he replied.

Mr. Hartridge also stated that reports published that Thaw refused to be examined by three alienists yester day were far from the truth. He said that two of the doctors had visited Thaw in the Tombs before.

CIVIL WAR VETS FRATERNIZE

Federals and Confederates Attend Reunion on Battlefield.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chattonooga, Tenn., September 20.—A notable feature of the re-union of Wilder's brigade of the army of the Cumberland, was the entertainment given to-day by Confederate Veterans. Camp Joe McConnell, U. C. V., of Ring Gold, Ga., was the host, serving a basket dinned at the foot of the Georgia monument on the Chickamauga battlefield. N .B. Forrest, Camp, of this city, was also largely represented. Speeches were made by General Wildar, Congressmen Maddox and Lee, of Georgia, and by several famous Confederates. Survivors of the Iron Brigade, made up of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan troops held a reunion to-day on Snodgrass hill, where they fought in 1863.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Nearly 3,500 physicians of the State, representing 551 cities and towns, including some of the best known in the profession, are signers of a petition presented to Governor Higgins today in behalf of Albert T. Patrick, the lawyer convicted and under sentence of death since 1901 for the murder of the aged Texas millionaire, William Marsh Rice, in September, 1900. The Governor is petitioned to appoint a commission composed of disinterested experts selected from the medical profession, to examine impartially into the question of Patrick' sanity and report their findings at as early a date as possible, "and thus avoid the possibility of mistake, as well as to get a final and just solution of the question." The Governor will investigate for authority to comply with the petition.

SAND-CLAY ROADS ARE A SUCCESS

Government Expert Who Has Built Them in South Says They Are Satisfactory—New Idea for Clay Roads.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, Sept. 19.—As Congress may sometime appropriate money for good roads, in which the South will share, the views of William L. Spoon, road expert in the office of public roads, will prove exceedingly valuable. Having made the roads of the Southern States a special study for many years, his views will in all probability be adopted in the construction of better highways when Congress appropriates the funds.

Throughout the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Florida and other States in the South, there abounds an unlimited supply of the very best road-making clay from which roads may be made at a much more reduced cost than if made of macadam. These States now have several miles of experiment roads in different sections, and there is not the least doubt, in the mind of Mr. Spoon, that they will prove the ultimate solution of road-building throughout the South generally. The mixing of sand and clay as a form of road construction has received careful study where in many sections they are the only materials available for road building.

It may safely be said that the construction of sand-clay roads in the Southern States has passed the experimental stage. It has been proved that they are well adapted to light traffic, and are less noisy, less dusty, and are more resilient than the average macadam road. Even under heavy traffic they have proved to a great extent satisfactory. There are sand-clay roads in the South Atlantic and Gulf States over which heavy loads of cotton and other farm products are hauled throughout the year, with but little resulting damage. When the cheapness of this kind of construction is considered, it will be seen that for certain localities, at least, it is preferrable to macadam.

The price of labor, the price of the haul, width of roadway and depth and nature of material enter largely into the cost of the sand-clay road. It is assumed, however, that if the clay is found within one mile of the road, the labor worth $1 per day and teams $3 per day, the cost of constructing a 12-foot sand-clay road would be approximately $579 per mile. Where, however, the work is done by convict labor and the teams are owned by the counties working them, the relative cost per mile will be found considerably less.

Mr. Spoon says that, according to his experience, the cost of sand-clay road construction in the South has been found to range from $200 to $1,200 per mile, in most cases running from $300 to $800.

In large areas of the South where there is a limited supply of sand but a good supply of clay, the latter being known as "buck-shot," experiments in burnt-clay roads are being made.

Special experiments have recently been in progress to see what could be done to better these clay roads by burning or clinking them. In some parts of the South, where these clay roads prevail, travel during the winter months is almost impossible. Mr. Spoon believes that burning will solve the problem and that within a few years the sticky, miry clay road will be a thing of the past.

The sand-clay road that was recently constructed under Mr. Spoon's direction is entirely satisfactory to him, and he will probably follow this work in other parts of the South.

GRAFT IN PHILIPPINES.

Officers High Up as Well as Civilians Involved.

Manila, Sept. 19.—Captain Ira L. Fredendall, of the quartermaster's department, was charged in the court of first instance in this city this afternoon of misappropriation of public funds.

The filing of these charges is the culmination of extensive investigations by the insular authorities into an alleged series of frauds perpetrated by members of the quartermaster's department in the Philippines. The inquiry resulted in the discovery of padded pay rolls in quartermaster's shops and grafting in the lease of lighters. Both officers and civilians are implicated and court martials will follow the court proceedings.

Major General Wood continued the inquiry originally begun by Major General Corbin. The result of the investigation has been a great saving in transportation funds and a decrease in graft, such as the manufacture of furniture, etc., in the shops for the private use of officers and civilians.

High officials in the army and government are said to have been the beneficiaries.

DIED OF GRIEF OVER SON'S FALL

Saddest Part of Story of the Recent Embezzlement of Well Known Cotton Men of Augusta, Georgia.

(Atlanta Journal.)

That was a sad story of the trouble that young Alexander got into in Augusta, some weeks ago, of his arrest in Pittsburg, and his being brought back to the scene of his fault. But we believe few people could have read unmoved, yesterday, the story of the breaking of the news to him, of his mother's death, from sorrow on his account, just a week before. Much sympathy has been expressed for the young man, probably led into speculation, fiercely tempted and yielding at last. What his punishment may be from the courts of the law we do not know. But there is nothing that can be done to him that will be equal to the remorse he must carry with him to the grave that his mother died through grief at his fault.

There are few men who have not some good woman, or women, as their guardian angels, whose lives are wrapped up in the lives of the men they love. The women are shielded from the temptations that assail the men, and the men must go out to fight their battles in the dust and the crime and the heat. But if the men would only consider the consequences of a wrong act, to their womankind, even though they might risk the chance of discovery and punishment for themselves, the thought might stay them in time. It is one of the mysteries too dark for us, that through the power of a pure affection like a mother's love, the innocent must suffer with the guilty. But that is the fact in the world in which we live. Disgrace comes to the purest homes through the fault of one member of that home.

Think about the woman.

RIVER IS NOW FALLING.

Number of Dead in Railroad Disaster Not Known.

King Fisher, Okla., September 19.—Cimarron river has fallen eight feet from the stage at which it weakened the Rock Island bridge yesterday when part of a train went into the river, but the smoking car is still six feet under the surface, and an attempt to explore it will not be made until to-morrow. It is not known how many persons were in the smoking car when it fell into the river. Conductor Thomas says there were at least nine men, and he believes that three of these escaped. No bodies have been recovered. Herman E. Sells, infant son of Mrs. Kate Sells, of Payne, Ohio, died to-day as a result of inhaling muddy water.

FIFTY YEARS IMPRISONMENT.

Long Sentence for Negro Assailant of Two Delaware Women.

Wilmington, Del., September 19.—Charles Conley, the negro who attacked and seriously injured Mrs. Beatrice Frankish and her daughter, Miss Gussie Leitch, on a public road ten days ago, was to-day sentenced to fifty years imprisonment and to receive thirty lashes at the whipping post. The negro attacked the women while they were driving. He rendered Miss Leitch senseless by a blow on the head with a stone and struggled desperately but vainly to feloniously assault the elder woman. Conley was arrested Monday. He confessed yesterday and to-day he was indicted, tried, and sentenced. The prisoner will be whipped next Saturday.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, September 20.—The cotton market was quiet to-day with fluctuations very narrow. The close was steady at a net decline of 4@7 points. Sales were estimated at 75,000 bales. The opening was barely steady at a decline of 3 to 5 points in response to lower cables and favorable weather in the South. There were reports of a very steady spot situation, however, with offerings light and a good demand from spinners and this checked pressure, just as expectations of an increasing movement as picking becomes more general and the favorable weather prevented any general demand. Prices consequently ruled irregular within a narrow range, reflecting a pretty even division of orders which were mostly for the account of local professionals, and the market held around the initial figures during the middle session, increasing the decline slightly toward the close under scattered liquidation. Last prices were within a point or so of the lowest.

Receipts at the ports to-day, 24,557 bales, against 23,869 last week and 16,902 last year. For the week 210,000 bales, against 139,111 last week, and 240,478 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 3,013 bales against 2,011 last year and at Houston 13,213 bales against 10,657 last year.

THE BREATH OF LIFE

It is a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs mean powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." CUBA'S FREEDOM IN THE BALANCE

Secretary Taft Hints That Her People Had Better Compromise Troubles.

WHAT INTERVENTION MEANS

Conferences With Insurgents and Government Yesterday Raise No Hopes of Settlement—Gen. Funston Summoned to Havana.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Havana, Sept. 20.—A second day of conferences with the leaders of the factions in the Cuban conflict has not enabled Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon to announce any plan for compromising the difficulty. So strenuous are the appeals of both the Liberal and Moderate party leaders that the situation becomes increasingly complicated as the negotiations proceed. However, Secretary Taft said tonight that he believed when they are brought face to face with the danger of losing independence for ever, all patriotic Cubans will be willing to make concessions.

Mr. Taft added that the United States peace emissaries are occupying a most delicate position and have undertaken to hear all complaints and that until they have made themselves thoroughly conversant with the political turmoil of Cuba, they cannot express themselves freely in the conferences, fearing that possible misunderstandings may have a deterrent effect.

The only counsel to the political leaders given by Mr. Taft was on the subject of not engaging in further agitation that might make intervention by the United States necessary. This advice he offers freely to all to whom he gives audience, regardless of party.

Mr. Taft has made it clear that the United States is not seeking to exercise control over the island or any of its affairs; but he has quoted President Roosevelt's letter to Minister Quesada to the effect that the United States has a duty which it cannot shirk. To those whom he has met in conference Mr. Taft has said that now is the time to decide whether they would have Cuba live as a nation. He has weighed every word carefully and has neither upheld nor criticised the principles of either faction.

Mr. Taft realizes that unless the national spirit is aroused the commercial interests will have no confidence in any settlement that may be reached. On this point the mediators are confronted with their chief difficulty for no way has been devised to obtain the sentiments of those in the field without treating with armed force which might be regarded as a recognition of the insurgents. Senor Altredo Zayas is generally regarded as the official representative of the revolution but he cannot claim that distinction in negotiating with Secretary Taft, as that would make him a revolutionist and terminate free intercourse with President Roosevelt's representatives.

Senor Zayas has been received by Messrs. Taft and Bacon at the home of Minister Morgan in Marianao more frequently than any other of the Cuban leaders. At today's visit he was expected to file a brief setting forth the grievances of the Liberals, but he pleaded for more time and was granted until tomorrow.

Vice President Mendez Capote, the spokesman for the Moderates or government party, today filed a brief declaring the Moderate position and advancing certain propositions for settling the controversy. By Mr. Taft's order this brief was sealed and will not be taken up for consideration until it can be done in connection with the argument of the opposing side.

Mayor Cardenas and a number of the principal officials of Havana, paid a long visit today to Messrs. Taft and Bacon and argued that it was the duty of the United States to support the recognized government.

No reports of disturbances anywhere on the island have been received today. Cienfuegos is suffering from a water famine on account of the destruction of the water works at Jicota by the insurgents.

Gen. Funston Bound For Cuba.

Washington, Sept. 20.—General Frederick Funston, in obedience to orders from Secretary Taft, arrived here today on his way to Cuba. No additional orders have been issued regarding General Funston since the first one calling him here and he will proceed to Cuba with as much expedition as possible. It was found that he could not leave Tampa until Sunday night and so he has delayed his departure from this city until Saturday. General Funston says that further than his orders from the Secretary he knows nothing of the duty for which he is destined. General Funston is particularly acquainted with the conditions existing before the Spanish war, and, it is pointed out at the Department, is prepared to give the Secretary more information than any other man in the army on that subject.

Naturally the visit of General Funston revives the discussion about his probable command in Cuba in case the United States intervenes and sends an army to Cuba, but the general had nothing to say on that matter.

CHINESE LABOR FOR CANAL WORK

Proposals Opened by Isthmian Canal Commission Yesterday at Washington.

THERE WERE FOUR BIDDERS

Commission Wanted from 2,500 to 15,000 Laborers, to Be Landed in Panama in Three Months—Nine Cents Hour.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, September 20.—Four proposals were submitted to the Isthmian Canal Commision to-day for the furnishing of Chinese labor to be employed in the construction of the Panama Canal. The requirements of the specifications were, in brief, that the contractor should agree to supply the commission with at least 2,500 Chinese, the commision having the privilege of calling upon the successful contractor for additional labor not exceeding 15,000. It further was specified that the laborers should be on the isthmus ready for work within three and a half months of the opening of the proposals and that the contractors should deposit with their proposals a bond of $50,000 as a guarantee faithfully to carry out the terms of the contract.

The propositions were opened in the board room of the commissioner by W. Leo Pepperman, assistant chief of the office of administration comsion. Mr. Pepperman announced that no award would be made of the contract until the proposals had been examined by the commission and its general counsel. In accordance with the specifications, the proposals were made for the furnishing of different the hour in American gold.

A summary of the four proposals submitted follows:

The American Contracting Company, represented by James R. Morse, of Englewood, N. J.: Common laborers, ten cents per hour; foremen and interpreters, twenty cents per hour, physicians forty cents per hour, cooks and barbers 15 cents per hour.

International Contracting Company, Washington, D. C., represented by Carroll Purman, president: Laborers and cooks 13 cents per hour, doctors 39 cents per hour; assistant doctors 26 cents per hour; interpreters two and a half times 13 cents per hour; foremen, one and one-half times 13 cents per hour.

Wa Me Lee Hing & Company, Baltimore, Md.: Laborers, clerks and barbers 12½ cents per hour; foremen and interpreters, 15 cents per hour; doctors 25 cents per hour.

Joel Julian, Cuban, Washington, D. C.; For the first 2,500 Chinese laborers, 11 cents per hour; foremen, forty cents per hour; doctors sixty cents per hour; interpreter sixty cents per hour; Cooks and barbers thirty cents per hour.

For the first additional 1,000 above 2,500:

Laborers, 11 cents per hour. For the second additional 1,000: Laborers, 10⅞ cents per hour; for the third additional 1,000, 10¾ cents per hour; for the fourth additional 1,000, 10⅝ cents per hour; for the fifth additional 1,000, 10½ cents per hour; for the sixth additional 1,000, 10⅜ cents pr hour; for the seventh additional 1,000, 10¼ cents per hour; for the eighth additional 1,000 10 cents per hour; for the ninth additional 1,000, 9¾ cents per hour; for the tenth additional 1,000, 9½ cents per hour; for the eleventh additional 1,000, 9¼ cents per hour, and for the balance of the 15,000 laborers, 9 cents per hour.

The last proposal is assumed at the Department to mean that if the commision enters into contract with the Cuban and wants the full quota of 15,000 Chinese, he will furnish them at the rate of nine cents per hour for common laborers.

GREATER WASHINGTON'S PLAN.

Exposition on Wheels Coming South With Trade Speelers.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Sept. 20.—The Greater Washington special, a miniature exposition on wheels of local industries, started from the city of Washington today on a 1,500 mile journey through Virginia, North Carolina, and parts of West Virginia and Maryland. The trip will last twenty-three days, and it is made for the purpose of furthering a movement which long has been under way for a Greater Washington. In addition to travelling representatives of the various houses having exhibits on the train, there will be present several lecturers who will make known at the places visited the commercial advantages of this city. The movement has met with the hearty support of the local press and public generally.

BRYAN TALKS TO GEORGIANS

Commoner Spoke to Audience of Seven Thousand in Atlanta Yesterday.

HIS RECEPTION WAS CORDIAL

Spoke on Philippine Independence and Other Political Topics—Entertained at Dollar Democratic Dinner.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga. September 20.—For one hour and fifteen minutes this afternoon, William J. Bryan addressed an audience of about seven thousand people, gathered at the skating rink of the Ponce de Leon Park His reception was cordial and hearty but it was not wildly enthusiastic or more than usually demonstrative. In his address Mr. Bryan used few arguments touched upon few subjects that he has not dis ussed before during his tour of the South. Secretary Shaw's speeches and the tariff question, President Roosevelt's borrowings from the Democratic platform, socialism, and the independence of the Philippines, were the topics he considered. He roused and kept his audience in splendid humor by several stories illustrative of his arguments.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryar arrived at 5 o'clock this morning but were allowed to rest in their car until 7:30 when they were escorted to the Piedmont Hotel. Breakfast and Mr. Bryan's private correspondence attended to, and a private interview with Hoke Smith, Georgia's next governor, preceded a general reception to the public, which was attended by about fifteen hundred citizens of Atlanta and other Georgia cities. The principal event of the day was the address of Mr. Bryan and this evening a "Democratic Dollar dinner" attended by four hundred citizens closed a busy day Mrs. Bryan was the guest of the society ladies of Atlanta at several functions more or less formal. The party boarded their car at midnight, leaving for Birmingham, where Mr. Bryan will speak tomorrow, going thence to Jackson, Miss.

Mr. Bryan began his address this afternoon after an introduction by President Lamar Hill, of the Young Men's Democratic League, and by Judge Reuben Arnold, both of whom referred to Mr. Bryan as the next President. He said he wished he could enter into the appreciation of the prophecies with which he had been introduced but the experience of past years, he said, took away something of the warmth of such appreciation. Prophecy, he declared, is half wish and half environment. He was not sure but that he would be happier as a private citizen than as a holder of office, but he did not purpose to await election to do his best for Democracy. Georgia Democracy, he declared, was so pure and so sure that he felt it almost wasting time, to try to strengthen it. Democracy is having rapid growth. Even Republicans appreciate this, and find it not only respectable but popular.

He took up Secretary Shaw's recent Southern speeches on the tariff question and discussed them along lines familiar in recent addresses. He reviewed the last ten years of Republican administration, declaring them to have been unparalled prosperity. The bounty of God had brought circumstances, for which Republicanism had claimed the credit. President Roosevelt, the most conspicious reformer, but not the most advanced of his party, had done several good things, but his inspiration, he declared, came from that much dispised Democratic platform."

Mr. Bryan outlined and discussed at some length the things for which he asserted President Roosevelt had drawn an inspiration from Democratic principals. His attack on trusts, undertaken but not carried far enough, the settling of a great strike, the passage of raoilroad rate law by Democratic aid in the Congress, were the things for which he claimed Democratic inspiration.

The independence of the Philippines, Mr. Bryan said, had been impressed on him by his recent travels, as most desirable and wise. The fitness of the islanders for self-government had already indicated and needed only the opportunity to have full demonstration.

In my travels, he concluded, "I have found the whole world friendly to the United States because our philanthropy has overflowed all its waste places. I have come back more convinced than ever that the mission of this country is to makes its flag, not feared, but loved by all nations. We have the most beautiful flag in the world and I want to see it unfurled in the hghest place. By its side I want to see the flag of that party, which stands for equal rights to all men, with special privileges for none."

If Bryan gets to be President and the government should run the railroads, the Nebraskan would be surprised to know how many "leading citizens" would want him to give them jobs as Pullman car conductors.

NOTABLE CAREER COMES TO CLOSE

Congressman Hitt, of Illinois, Passed Away Yesterday at Narragansett Pier.

THIRTY YEARS IN CONGRESS.

Mr. Hitt As Newspaper Reporter Accompanied Abraham Lincoln in His Famous Joint Campaign With Stephen A Douglas.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 20.—Congressman Robert R. Hitt, of Illinois, died at his Summer home here today. Heart failure following a long period of increasing physical weakness caused the death of Congressman Hitt. Mrs. Hitt and her two sons, W. S. Hitt, and R. H. Hitt, were at the bedside of the Congressman when he died Congressman Hitt came here last June and since that time he has been very ill, requiring most of the time the time the constant attention of nurses and physicians. His condition was due to advancing years. His age was seventy-two.

Reported Lincoln-Douglas Debate.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Ill health continuing through two years at least, which for the most part unfitted him for his Congressional duties, had afflicted Representative Hitt, so that his demise was not altogether unexpected here.

Mr. Hitt was born in Ohio in 1834, but removed to Illinois three years later. His career was a varied one, embracing newspaper work, diplomacy and legislation. As a young man he was intimately associated with Abraham Lincoln and as an expert stenographer reported many of that statesman's utterances in the great joint campaign with Stephen A. Douglas, as a representative of a Chicago newspaper. His diplomatic career began in 1874 as secretary of legation to Paris, and in 1881 he came to Washington as Assistant Secretary of State. The year following he was elected to the Forty Seventh Congress from the 13th Illinois district, and he was serving his thirteenth continuous term at the time of his death. Mr. Hitt was one of the most popular men in Congress.

BEFORE YOU VOTE! READ! READ! READ!

To All Good Democrats:

A deal has been made between Mr. Henry Horn and Mr. John Haar to defeat me for Register of Deeds. Mr. Horn has agreed with Mr. Haar, for a consideration, to control all Horn voters for Haar. This is an absolute fact and it cannot be denied. Mr. Haar may deny that he individually made the deal, but neither Mr. Horn nor his campaign managers can deny that the combination has been made.

I appeal to the stalwart manhood of the good old Democracy of New Hanover County, to repudiate this deal and combination.

The voice of the people should be heard; let each Democrat vote, according to his best judgment, without being dictated to by any deal or combination.

My faith is in the people and to them I appeal.
